[NUMB. 805.]

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY October 9th, to MONDAY October 16th, 1749.

Mr. Timothy,

The Seſſions approaching, when no Doubt the Juries will be put in Mind of their Duty by the uſual Charge from the Bench; I thought it would not be improper to inſert, in your Gazette, the following Rules, which the great Judge Hale preſcribed to himſelf in the Execution of his Office: Though our Judges may not have Occaſion to be put in Mind of them, yet many of theſe Rules may be looked on as an excellent Charge to Juſtices of the Peace; eſpecially ſuch as have not read his Life, written by Biſhop Burnett, and inſerted in the 3d Vol. of his Contemplations.

Things neceſſary to be continually had in Remimberance.

I. THAT in the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, I am intruſted for God, the King and Country, and therefore,

II. That it be done, 1. Uprightly, 2. Deliberately, 3. Reſolutely.

III. That I reſt not upon my own Underſtanding or Strength, but implore and reſt upon the Direction and Strength of God.

IV. That in the Execution of Juſtice, I carefully lay aſide my own Paſſions, and not give way to them, however provoked.

V. That I be wholly intent upon the Buſineſs I am about, remitting all other Cares and Thoughts, as unſeaſonable and Interruptions.

VI. That I ſuffer not myſelf to be prepoſſeſſed with any Judgment at all, 'till the whole Buſineſs and both Parties be heard.

VII. That I never engage myſelf in the beginning of any Cauſe, but reſerve myſelf unprejudiced 'till the whole be heard.

VIII. That in Buſineſs Capital, though my Nature prompt me to Pity; yet to conſider, that there is alſo a Pity due to the Country.

IX. That I be not too rigid in Matters purely conſciencious, where all the Harm is Diverſity of Judgment.

X. That I be not biaſſed with Compaſſion to the Poor, or Favour to the Rich, in point of Juſtice.

XI. That Popular, or Court Applauſe, or Diſtaſte, have no Influence into any thing I do in point of Diſtribution of Juſtice.

XII. Not to be ſolicitous what Men will ſay or think, ſo long as I keep myſelf exactly according to the Rule of Juſtice.

XIII. If in Criminals it be a meaſuring Caſt, to incline to Mercy and Acquital.

XIV. In Criminals that conſiſt merely in Words, when no more Harm enſues, Moderation is no Injuſtice.

XV. In Criminals of Blood, if the Fact be evident, Severity is Juſtice.

XVI. To abhor all private Solicitations, of what kind ſoever, and by whomſoever, in Matters depending.

XVII. To charge my Servants, 1. Not to interpoſe in any Buſineſs whatſoever. 2. Not to take more than their known Fees. 3. Not to give any undue Precedence to Cauſes. 4. Not to recommend Councel.

XVIII. To be ſhort and ſparing at Meals, that I may be the fitter for Buſineſs.

London, July 20. We are aſſured, that a Man of War is ordered to Tobago, to ſatisfy the Government, whether the French that lately ſettled there have quitted that Iſland, as has been aſſerted in an Expreſs which arrived on Monday laſt from that Court.

A Propoſal is under Conſideration for Peopling the ſaid Iſland, by ſuch of his Majeſty's American Subjects as ſhall be willing to accept of a Royal Grant of Lands, for ſettling in that Iſland; which Propoſal, we are aſſured, will be ſhortly carried into Execution.

We are aſſured that there is above Five Thouſand Pounds already ſubſcribed for carrying on the Fiſheries in Scotland, and that a conſiderable Number of ſmall Veſſels are ordered to be immediately prepared for that Service.

London, July 22. We hear that ſome Royal Grants will be made of ſeveral Parcels of waſte Lands in this Kingdom, for the Encouragement of ſeveral Manufactures, and the better Employment of the Poor.

We hear that a Draught is to be made from the Regiments of Foot in Scotland, to be employ'd in the Works carrying on there for the Fiſhery, for which they are to have an additional Pay.

By a Letter from Toulon of the 7th Inſtant, we are informed that four of the eight Ships lately launched there were ready for the Sea, and waited for nothing but a fair Wind, but where bound for is kept a profound Secret. The other four were in great forwardneſs.

Three men of war ſnows are ſail'd for the coaſt of Scotland, in purſuit of a French pirate, of thirty guns, that has been hovering for ſome time about the Orkneys.
